FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Cass County, Office of the Secretary of State, Office of the State Public Defender, Kansas City Board of Election Commission, Office of the State Courts Administrator and the Platte County Board of Election Commission assume that there is no fiscal impact from this proposal.

Officials at the Office of the Attorney General assume that any potential costs arising from this proposal can be absorbed with existing resources.

Officials from the Department of Corrections (DOC) stated that they could not predict the number of new commitments which could result from the creation of the offense(s) outlined in the proposal. An increase in commitments would depend on the utilization of prosecutors and the actual sentences imposed by the courts. If additional persons were sentenced to the custody of the DOC due to the provisions of this legislation, the DOC would incur a corresponding increase in operational costs either through incarceration (FY 2009 average $16.04 per inmate, per day or an annual cost of $5,855) or through supervision provided by the Board of Probation and Parole (FY 2009 average $3.71 per offender, per day or an annual cost of $1,354).

The following factors contribute to DOC's minimal assumption:

- DOC assumes the narrow scope of the crime will not encompass a large number of offenders.
- The low felony status of the crime enhances the possibility of plea-bargaining or imposition of a probation sentence.
- The probability exists that offenders would be charged with a similar but more serious offense or that sentences may run concurrent to one another.

In summary, supervision by the DOC through probation or incarceration would result in some additional costs, but it is assumed the impact would be $0 or a minimal amount that could be absorbed within existing resources.

No other board of election commission or local election authority responded to Oversight's request for impact. Oversight assumes this proposal has no fiscal impact.
